

AT-AT Commander Costume Requirements

An AT-AT Commander MUST have the following:

1. Open face helmet similar to both Snowtrooper & AT-ST Drivers.

- A. Painted gray (or olive green)
- B. Black auto door trim (or something similar) around edge.
- C. Comlink on the right side of helmet the same as the AT-ST Driver.
- D. 2 Greeblies, one on either side of helmet. (Officers Discs)
- E. Goggles ,tinted. (maybe military or motorcycle) but the strap must not have any wording on it.
- F. Also note the round greeblies at the bottom edge of the helmet.
- G. Black chin strap. Notice there is no chin cup like the AT-ST Drivers have.

H. Silver or gray blocks in a line on the back of the helmet.

2. Gray or OD Green Officer Uniform
3. Snowtrooper belt buckle painted to match armor and helmet on a black belt.
4. Standard Imperial issue black officer style boots
5. Imperial issue black gloves. No gauntlets.
6. Snowtrooper ab armor, painted gray (to match helmet)
 - A. two red squares on right side of the center chest square
 - B. two white squares on the left side of the center chest square
 - C. red, gray and white knobs on the left side, center plate
 - D. three gray knobs and one red knob on the right side of the chest plate
7. Rank bars on the top left of the chest armor. Can not be of higher rank than General.

8. Back armor should look like this.
 - A. Same as AT-AT Driver or Tie Pilot.
 - B. Should be painted to match the rest of the armor.
9. Shoulder straps are the same as used on Stormtrooper, Snowtrooper, AT-AT Driver, Ect.
 - A. Has 3 small greeblies on front edge of strap.
 - B. Has only 1 small greebie on back of strap.

APPROVED Options:

1. Red squares on back wired with LED's
2. Black blaster holster and blaster. Options include, DL-44, Merrson flash 4 or Imperial short range blaster.

